Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kakii et al.

Kakii (Figures 1-78b) shows a parallel optical assembly for mating with a ferrule supporting an array of optical fibers and alignment holes comprising a receptacle (housings A & B) with a rectangular window at an inner end, a carrier assembly C for supporting and having an array of optoelectronic devices 52, 53 and a frame with a plurality of lenses 54, a tower extending outward from the frame and a set of guide pins projecting forward for mating with alignment holes in the ferrule. The tower has a rectangular base and elevated sections. The fibers extend in a line between elevated sections. The carrier assembly has a flexible circuit board (see Figure 46) and a printed circuit board 304.
